Flexible Start Dates

We will amend your tenancy start date without penalties or additional costs in the event that your Higher Education Institution confirms in writing that they are postponing on-campus face-to-face teaching.

You will need to let us know by the 4th September if the start of your university is going to be delayed.

You can delay your move in date up to 4 January 2021 but no later than the Saturday before the start of your University's welcome week. All tenancies begin on a Saturday.

You must provide evidence from your University regarding the delayed start date. For example, if your University has delayed its start date to 5 October 2020, with welcome week beginning 28 September 2020, and you can provide proof from the University of this delay, you are eligible to move your tenancy start date to no later than Saturday, 26 September 2020.

If your Higher Education Institution is due to start on time, the tenancy start date is 5 September 2020 for Highlight Parkgate.
